133. (1) Where damage occurs to any premises in which one or more units of the Armed Forces or the Reserve Regiment or parts of such units are quartered or billeted, or any fixtures or effects in or belonging to such premises are damaged or lost, then if it appears, on investigation in accordance with the provisions of General Orders, that the damage or loss was occasioned by the wrongful act or negligence of persons belonging to any of the units in occupation of the premises and was so caused at a time when they were in occupation thereof, but that the said persons cannot be identified, any person belonging to any of the units or parts of units may be required to contribute, toward compensation for the damage or loss, such amount as may in accordance with General Orders be determined to be just, and the amount may be deducted from his pay.

(2) Subsection (1) extends to ships, trains, vehicles and aircraft in which units or parts of units of the Armed Forces or Reserve Regiment are being transported, and references to premises, quartering and occupation shall be construed accordingly.

Remission of forfeitures and deductions

134. Any forfeiture of or deduction from the pay of any officer or soldier imposed under the provisions of any written law may be remitted by the competent authority.

Enforcement of dependants' maintenance orders by deduction from pay

135. (1) Where any court in Brunei Darussalam has made a dependants' maintenance order against any person (in this section referred to as the defendant) and the defendant is a member of the Armed Forces, then (whether or not he was a member of the Armed Forces when the order was made) the Commander may order such sum to be deducted from the pay of the defendant and appropriated in or towards satisfaction of the payment due under the order as the Commander thinks fit.

(2) Where to the knowledge of any court in Brunei Darussalam making a dependants' maintenance order, or an order varying, revoking or reviving any such order, the defendant is a member of the Armed Forces, the court shall send a copy of the order to the Commander.

(3) The Commander may by order vary or revoke any order previously made under this section, and may treat any order made under this section as being in suspense at any time while the person against whom the order was made is absent as mentioned in section 130(1)(a).

(4) In this section and in section 136, “dependants’ maintenance order” means an order made by the Court of a Kadi under Part VII of the Religious Council and Kadis Courts Act (Chapter 77) or by any court exercising appellate jurisdiction in respect of any such order of either of such first and second mentioned courts, against any person for the payment of —

Deductions from pay for maintenance of wife or child

136. (1) Where the Commander is satisfied that an officer or soldier is neglecting, without reasonable cause, to maintain his wife or any child of his under the age of 16 years, the Commander may order such sum to be deducted from his pay and applied towards the maintenance of his wife or child as the Commander thinks fit.

(2) On an application made to the Commander for an order under subsection (1), the Commander, if satisfied that a prima facie case has been made out for the making of such an order, may make an interim order for such deduction and appropriation as is mentioned in subsection (1) to take effect pending the further examination of the case.

(3) Where an order is in force under section 135(1) for the making of deductions in favour of any person from the pay of any member of the Armed Forces, no deductions from his pay in favour of the same person shall be ordered under the foregoing provisions of this section unless the member of the Armed Forces is in a place where process cannot be served on him in connection with proceedings for the variation of the order of the court in consequence of which the order under section 135 was made.

(4) The Commander may by order vary or revoke any order previously made under this section, and may treat any order made under this section as being in suspense at any time while the person against whom the order was made is absent as mentioned in section 130(1)(a).

(5) The power to make an order under this section for the deduction of any sum and its appropriation towards the maintenance of a child shall include power —

(a) subject to the provisions of subsection (3), to make such an order after the child has attained the age of 16 years, if an order in favour of the child is in force under section 135(1);

(b) to make such an order after the child has attained the age of 16 years if —

- (i) a dependants' maintenance order made by a court in Brunei Darussalam was in force in favour of the child at the time when the child attained that age; and
- (ii) the person from whose pay the deductions are ordered is in such a place as is mentioned in subsection (3); and
- (iii) the child is for the time being engaged in a course of education or training; or

(c) to continue such an order from time to time after the child has attained the age of 16 years, if the child is for the time being engaged in a course of education or training, but no order so made or continued shall remain in force after the child attains the age of 21 years or shall, unless continued under paragraph (c), remain in force for more than 2 years.

(6) In this section, the following expressions have the following meanings in relation to a person —

“adopted child” includes a person whose de facto adoption by that person (whether alone or jointly with another) is for the time being registered under the provisions of the Registration of Adoptions Act (Chapter 123);

“child” includes any child of that person’s wife and any illegitimate or adopted child of that person or his wife;

“wife” means any woman whose marriage to that person is registered in accordance with any written law and has not been dissolved.

Limit of deductions under sections 135 and 136 and effect on forfeiture

137. (1) The sums deducted from a person’s pay under sections 135 and 136 shall not together exceed one half of his pay.

(2) Where any deductions have been ordered under section 135 or 136 from a person’s pay and (whether before or after the deductions have been ordered) he incurs a forfeiture of pay in consequence of the finding or sentence of a court-martial or the finding or award of the appropriate superior authority or his commanding officer, it shall apply only to so much of his pay as remains after the deductions have been made.

APPEALS FROM COURTS-MARTIAL

Interpretation

Interpretation of Part 7

138. In this Part —

“appellant” includes a person who has been tried by court-martial and wishes to appeal under this Part to the Court of Appeal;

“prescribed” means prescribed by rules of court;

“Registrar” means the Registrar of the Court of Appeal;

“rules of court” means rules of court made by the president under section 175.

*Right of appeal and initiating procedureRight of appeal

139. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, a person convicted by court-martial may, with the leave of the Court of Appeal, appeal to that court against his conviction.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, the person's right of appeal shall not be exercisable —

(a) unless, within such period as may be prescribed, he presents to the Colonel in Chief a petition praying that his conviction be quashed; and

(b) until either the prescribed period (beginning with the day on which the petition is presented) expires or he is notified by the Colonel in Chief that the petition has not been granted, whichever event first occurs.

(3) If a person presents a petition for the purposes of subsection (2)(a), but fails to do so within the period prescribed for those purposes and subsequently applies for leave to appeal, the Court of Appeal may direct that he be treated as not having thereby lost his right of appeal if they think that there is a reasonable explanation of the failure and that it is in the interests of justice that he should be so treated.

(4) Rules of court may provide that, in such circumstances as may be specified in the rules, a petition for the purposes of subsection (2) which is presented to such person as may be specified in the rules shall be treated, for the purposes of that subsection, as having been presented to the Colonel in Chief.

(5) If no appointment of Colonel in Chief has been made under section 9, then any person convicted by court-martial may, with the leave of the Court of Appeal and notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), appeal direct to that court against his conviction.

Application for leave to appeal

140. (1) Leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal shall not be given except on an application on that behalf made by or on behalf of the appellant and lodged within the prescribed period with the Registrar.

(2) The application must be in the prescribed form and specify the grounds on which leave to appeal is sought and such other particulars, if any, as may be prescribed.

(3) Except as provided in section 172(2), the Court of Appeal may extend the period within which an application for leave to appeal must be lodged, whether the period has expired or not.

(4) Rules of court may provide that, in such circumstances as may be specified in rules, and application which is lodged with a person (other than the Registrar) specified in the rules shall be treated for purposes of subsection (1) as having been lodged with the Registrar; and it shall be the duty of the specified person, if an application is lodged with him in accordance with the rules, to act as follows —

(a) he shall forward the application to the Registrar with as much expedition as practicable; and

(b) if it appears to him practicable to do so, and in all the circumstances expedient, he shall forthwith furnish the Registrar (before the receipt by the latter of the application) with such particulars of the application as will enable the Registrar to prepare a copy of it.

Consideration of application by Court of Appeal

141. (1) In considering whether or not to give leave to appeal, the Court of Appeal shall have regard to any expression of opinion made by the Judge Advocate General that the case is a fit one for appeal, and if any such expression is so made, they may, without more ado, give leave to appeal.

(2) Where the Court of Appeal dismiss an application for leave to appeal, the Court may, if the Court considers the application to have been frivolous or vexatious, order that any sentence passed upon the applicant in the proceedings, from which it was sought to bring the appeal, shall begin to run from the day on which the Court of Appeal dismiss the application.

*Disposal of appealPower to quash conviction as wrong in law etc.

142. (1) The Court of Appeal shall allow an appeal against conviction by court-martial if the Court think that —

(a) the finding of the court-martial under all the circumstances of the case is unsafe or unsatisfactory;

(b) the finding involves a wrong decision of a question of law;
or

(c) there was a material irregularity in the course of the trial, and in any other case shall dismiss the appeal:

Provided that the court may, notwithstanding that they are of the opinion that the point raised in the appeal might be decided in favour of the appellant, dismiss the appeal if they consider that no miscarriage of justice has actually occurred.

(2) If the Court of Appeal allow an appeal against conviction, they shall quash the conviction.

Adjustment of sentence in case of conviction of two or more charges

143. Where —

(a) it appears to the Court of Appeal on an appeal against conviction that an appellant, though not properly convicted on some charge preferred against him before the court-martial by which he was tried, was properly convicted on some other charge so preferred; and

(b) the sentence passed by the court-martial on the appellant was not warranted by this Act for the offence of which he was convicted on the other charge, the court shall pass on the appellant, in substitution for the sentence passed on him by the court-martial, such sentence so warranted as they think proper.

Substitution of conviction on different charge

144. (1) This section applies where an appellant has been convicted of an offence and the court-martial by which he was tried could lawfully have found him guilty of some other offence, and it appears to the Court of Appeal on an appeal against conviction that the court-martial must have been satisfied of facts which proved him guilty of that other offence.

(2) The Court of Appeal may, instead of allowing or dismissing the appeal, substitute for the finding of the court-martial a finding of guilty of the other offence, and may pass on the appellant, in substitution for the sentence passed on him by the court-martial, such sentence as they think proper, being a sentence warranted by this Act for that other offence, but not a sentence of greater severity.

Variation of conviction so as to attract different sentence

145. (1) Where —

(a) an appellant has been convicted of an offence committed under circumstances involving the higher of two degrees of punishment; and

(b) it appears to the Court of Appeal on an appeal against conviction that the court-martial by which he was tried ought to have found him guilty of the offence as being committed under circumstances involving the lower degree of punishment, the court may, instead of allowing or dismissing the appeal, substitute for the finding of the court-martial a finding of guilty of the offence as being committed under circumstances involving the lower degree of punishment.

(2) Where an appellant has been convicted of an offence and it appears to the Court of Appeal on an appeal against conviction that the court-martial by which he was tried ought to have found him guilty of the offence subject to exceptions or variations, the court may, instead of allowing or dismissing the appeal, substitute for the finding of the court-martial a finding of guilty of the offence subject to exceptions or variations.

(3) Where the Court of Appeal exercise the power conferred by subsection (1) or (2), they may pass on the appellant, in substitution for the sentence passed on him by the court-martial, such sentence as they think proper, being a sentence warranted by this Act for the offence specified or involved in the substituted finding, but not a sentence of greater severity.

Substitution of finding of insanity or unfitness to plead

146. Where, on appeal, the Court of Appeal are of the opinion that —

(a) the proper finding would have been a finding of not guilty by reason of insanity; or

(b) the case is not one where there should have been a finding of not guilty, but that there should have been a finding that the accused was unfit to stand his trial, the court shall order the appellant to be kept in custody under section 108 in the same manner as on a finding of not guilty by reason of insanity or a finding of unfitness to stand trial by the court-martial by which the appellant was convicted.

Term of sentence passed under section 143, 144 or 145

147. (1) The term of any sentence passed by the Court of Appeal under section 143, 144 or 145 shall, unless the court otherwise direct, begin to run from the time from which it would have begun to run if it had been passed in the proceedings from which the appeal was brought.

(2) A sentence passed by the Court of Appeal under any of those sections is deemed for purposes of this Act to be a sentence passed by a court-martial, being a sentence that has been confirmed.

Retrial

Retrial generally excluded

148. Except as provided by this Act, where the conviction of a person by court-martial for an offence has been quashed under this Act, he shall not be liable to be tried again for that offence by a court-martial or by any other court.

Power to authorise retrial in certain cases

149. (1) The Court of Appeal shall have the power, on quashing a conviction, to make an order authorising the appellant to be retried by court-martial, but shall not exercise this power —

(a) where the appeal against conviction is allowed by reason only of evidence received or available to be received by the court under sections 159 to 161; and

(b) it appears to the court that the interests of justice require that an order under this section should be made.

(2) This section has effect notwithstanding the restrictions on retrial imposed by section 121.

(3) An appellant shall not be retried under this section for an offence other than —

(a) the offence of which he was convicted by the original court-martial and in respect of which his appeal is allowed as mentioned in subsection (1);

(b) any offence of which he could have been convicted at the original court-martial on a charge of the first-mentioned offence; or

(c) any offence charged in the alternative in respect of which the court-martial recorded no finding in consequence of convicting him of the first-mentioned offence.

(4) A person who is to be retried under this section for an offence shall, if the Court of Appeal so directs, be retried on a fresh charge or charges specified in the direction; but whether he is so tried or is retried on one or more of the original charges, no fresh investigation or other steps shall be taken under sections 76 to 79 in relation to the charge or charges on which he is to be retried.

Implementation of authority for retrial and supplementary orders of Court of Appeal

150. (1) The limitation imposed by section 119, with respect to the time within which a trial for any offence may be begun, does not apply in the case of a retrial authorised by an order of the Court of Appeal under section 149;

but a person to whom such an order applies shall not be retried unless the order convening the court-martial is issued within the period of 3 months beginning with the date of the order under section 149.

(2) The Court of Appeal may, where they authorise a retrial, make such orders as appear to them to be necessary or expedient for the retention until the relevant time of property or money which has been restored, delivered or paid in pursuance of an order made on or in consequence of the original conviction or has been placed in safe custody while the operation of any such order is suspended.

(3) In subsection (2), the reference to “the relevant time” is a reference to the expiration of the period of 3 months mentioned in subsection (1) or, if during that period a court-martial has been convened for the retrial of an appellant, the time when his case is finally disposed of:

Provided that the relevant time, in a case where the appellant is found guilty on his retrial, is the expiration of the period of 28 days beginning with the date of the finding.

Provisions as to retrial

151. (1) On the retrial of a person under section 149, the record of the evidence given by any witness at the original trial may, with the leave of the court-martial, be read as evidence —

(a) by agreement between the prosecution and the defence; or

(b) if the court-martial is satisfied that the witness is dead or unfit to give evidence or to attend for that purpose, or that all reasonable efforts to find him or secure his attendance have been made without success or that owing to the exigencies of the service it is not practicable for him to attend as aforesaid, and may be so read without further proof if it forms part of the original proceedings of the original court-martial or a copy thereof and those proceedings are, or that copy is, admissible as evidence under section 196.

(2) Where a person authorised to be retried is again convicted on the retrial, the court-martial by which he is convicted may pass in respect of the offence any sentence authorised by this Act, not being a sentence of greater severity than that passed on the original conviction.

(3) Where a person authorised under section 149 to be retried is convicted on retrial and sentenced to imprisonment or detention, there shall be taken into account in calculating the period for which he is liable to imprisonment or to be detained in pursuance of the sentence —

(a) any time before the original conviction was quashed which would have been taken into account in calculating the period for which he would have been liable to be imprisoned or detained in pursuance of a sentence of imprisonment or detention imposed at the original trial; and

(b) any time after the quashing of his original conviction which he has spent under close arrest awaiting retrial.

Insanity

Appeal against finding of not guilty by reason of insanity

152. (1) A person who has been tried by court-martial for an offence and been found not guilty by reason of insanity may, with the leave of the Court of Appeal, appeal to the court against the finding; and in relation to any such appeal, this Part, except sections 143 to 148, applies, subject to this section and section 153, as it applies in relation to an appeal by a person convicted against his conviction (with the necessary adaptation of references to a person convicted or to conviction).

(2) Where apart from this subsection —

(a) an appeal against a finding of not guilty by reason of insanity would fall to be allowed; and

(b) none of the grounds for allowing it relates to the question of the insanity of the appellant, the Court of Appeal may dismiss the appeal if they are of opinion that, for the insanity of the appellant, the proper finding would have been that he was guilty of an offence other than the offence charged.

Consequences where appeal under section 152 allowed

153. (1) The following provisions shall have effect where an appeal against a finding of not guilty by reason of insanity is allowed by the Court of Appeal.

(2) If the ground, or one of the grounds, for allowing the appeal is that the finding as to the appellant's insanity ought not to stand and the Court of Appeal are of the opinion that the proper finding would have been a finding of guilty of an offence (whether the offence charged or any other offence of which the court-martial could have found him guilty), the court shall substitute for the finding of the court-martial a finding of guilty of that offence.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), on substituting a finding of guilty of an offence, the Court of Appeal shall have the same powers of sentencing the appellant, and other powers, as the court-martial which tried him would have had on the same finding of guilty; and section 147 applies as in the case of a sentence passed by the court under section 143, 144 or 145.

(4) The Court of Appeal shall not have power, by virtue of subsection (3), to impose sentence of death; and where apart from this subsection a sentence of death would be required by law, the sentence imposed by virtue of subsection (3) shall (whatever the circumstances) be one of imprisonment for life.

(5) In any case where subsection (2) does not apply, the Court of Appeal shall substitute for the finding appealed against, a finding of not guilty.

Power of Court of Appeal to order continued detention

154. (1) The following provisions shall have effect in the case of an appeal by a person who, in pursuance of a finding of not guilty by reason of insanity, is kept in custody under section 108 where the Court of Appeal under section 153 substitute a finding of not guilty.

(2) If the Court of Appeal are of opinion that the person is of unsound mind and that he ought to continue to be detained in the interest of his own health or safety or with a view to the protection of other persons, they shall make an order for his continued detention under section 108 in like manner as on a finding of not guilty by reason of insanity by a court-martial.

*Unfitness to stand trialAppeal against finding of unfitness

155. (1) A person found by a court-martial to be unfit to stand his trial may, with the leave of the Court of Appeal appeal, to the court against the finding.

(2) In relation to an appeal under this section, this Part, except sections 143 to 146, applies (subject to section 156) as it applies in relation to an appeal by a person convicted against his conviction (with the necessary adaptations of references to a person convicted or to conviction).

Disposal of appeal under section 155

156. (1) The following provisions of this section apply with respect to an appeal under section 155.

(2) Where the question whether the accused was unfit to stand his trial was determined by the court-martial at a time later than on arraignment, the appeal may be allowed (notwithstanding that the finding was properly come to) if the Court of Appeal are of opinion that the case is one in which the court-martial should before that time have come to a finding of not guilty.

(3) If the Court of Appeal are of such opinion, they shall substitute a finding of not guilty (but not a finding of not guilty by reason of insanity) and the appellant shall then not be liable to be tried by a court-martial or by any other court for the offence with which he was charged.

(4) Where the appeal is allowed and the Court of Appeal do not substitute a finding of not guilty, the appellant may be tried accordingly for that offence; and if he is for the time being kept in custody under section 108, the court shall order him to remain in such custody under that section in the same manner as on a finding of unfitness to stand trial by a court-martial.

*General procedural provisionsPresentation of appellant's case

157. An appellant may, if he so desires, instead of presenting his case orally, present it in writing in the prescribed form.

Presence of appellant at hearing

158. An appellant shall not be entitled to be present at the hearing of an appeal to the Court of Appeal or at any proceedings preliminary or incidental to such an appeal, except where the court give him leave to be so; and accordingly any power of the court to pass a sentence may be exercised notwithstanding the absence of the appellant.

Evidence

159. (1) The Court of Appeal may —

(a) order the production of any document, exhibit or other thing connected with the proceedings the production of which appears to them necessary for the determination of the case;

(b) order any witness who would have been a compellable witness at the trial to attend for examination and be examined before the court, whether or not he was called at the trial; and

(c) receive the evidence, if tendered, of any witness.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), where evidence is tendered to the Court of Appeal under that subsection, the court shall, unless they are satisfied that the evidence if received would not afford any ground for allowing the appeal, exercise their power under that subsection of receiving it if —

(a) it appears to them that the evidence is likely to be credible and would have been admissible at the trial on an issue which is the subject of the appeal; and

(b) they are satisfied that it was not adduced at the trial, but that there is a reasonable explanation of the failure to adduce it.

(3) Subsection (1)(c) applies to any witness (including the appellant) who is competent but not compellable, and applies also to the appellant's husband or wife where the appellant makes an application for that purpose and the evidence of the husband or wife could not have been given at the trial except on such an application.

(4) The Court of Appeal may order the examination of any witness whose attendance may be required under subsection (1)(b) to be conducted in the prescribed manner before any judge of the court or before any other person appointed by the court for the purpose, and allow the admission of any depositions so taken as evidence before the court.

Power to call for report by member of trial court

160. (1) The Court of Appeal may order the taking of such steps as are requisite to obtain from any member of the court-martial by which the appellant was tried, or the person who officiated as Judge Advocate at the trial, a report giving his opinion on the case or on any point arising in it, or containing a statement as to any facts of which the ascertainment appears to the court to be material for the purpose of determining the case.

(2) The court shall not make an order under this section for the purpose of obtaining a report from a member of a court-martial other than the president of it unless they also make such order for the purpose of obtaining a report from the president or are satisfied that the obtaining of a report from him is impracticable or would involve undue delay.

Other powers for facilitating disposal of appeal

161. (1) Where any question arising on an appeal involves prolonged examination of documents or accounts, or any scientific or local investigation, which cannot in the opinion of the Court of Appeal conveniently be conducted before them, the court may order the reference of the question in the prescribed manner for inquiry and report to a special commissioner so far as they think fit to adopt it.

(2) The Court of Appeal may appoint a person with special expert knowledge to act as assessor to the court in any case where it appears to them that such knowledge is required for the proper determination of the case.

(3) There may be paid out of public funds to a special commissioner not being a Government officer to whom a question is referred under this section for inquiry and report, and to a person not being a Government officer appointed as assessor to the Court of Appeal, such remuneration and such travelling and subsistence allowances as may be prescribed by regulations made by the president of the Court of Appeal with the approval of His Majesty in Council.

*CostsCosts of successful appeal

162. (1) Where the Court of Appeal allow an appeal, they may if they think fit, direct the payment by Government of costs to the appellant.

(2) The costs which may under this section be directed to be paid are such sums as appear to the Court of Appeal reasonably sufficient to compensate the appellant for any expenses properly incurred by him in the case that is to say —

(a) in the prosecution of his appeal (including any proceedings preliminary or incidental thereto); or

(b) in carrying on his defence before the court-martial from which the appeal lies, or before any other court-martial before which were begun, but not concluded, proceedings for the offence with which he was charged before the first-mentioned court-martial.

Costs against appellant

163. (1) Where the Court of Appeal dismiss an appeal or an application for leave to appeal, they may, if they think fit, order the appellant or applicant (as the case may be) to pay to the Government the whole or any part of the costs of the appeal or application, including the costs of copying or transcribing any documents for the use of the Court of Appeal.

(2) An order under this section may be enforced —

(a) in the same manner as an order for the payment of costs made by the High Court in civil proceedings; or

(b) by making deductions from pay due to the appellant or applicant, as the case may be, or partly in the one way and partly in the other.

(3) Any sums which by virtue of subsection (2)(a) are recovered from a person by Government shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Witnesses' expenses

164. (1) The Court of Appeal may, whether or not they exercise their powers under section 62 or 63, order the payment out of public funds of such sums as appear to the court reasonably sufficient to compensate any person properly attending to give evidence on an appeal under this Part or any proceedings preliminary or incidental thereto (whether or not he gives evidence) for the expenses, trouble or loss of time properly incurred in or incidental to his attendance.

(2) The amount of any costs ordered to be paid under this section shall be ascertained as soon as practicable by the Registrar.

*Special references to Court of AppealReference of cases by Judge Advocate General or Minister

165. (1) If, in the case of the conviction of a person by court-martial —

(a) it appears to the Judge Advocate General that the finding of the court-martial involves a point of law of exceptional importance which in his opinion should be determined by the Court of Appeal; or

(b) it appears to the Minister upon consideration of matter appearing to him not to have been brought to the notice of the court-martial at the trial, to be expedient that the finding of the court-martial should be considered or reconsidered by the Court of Appeal, the Judge Advocate General or the Minister, as the case may be, may refer the finding to the court.

(2) A reference to the Court of Appeal under subsection (1) shall, for all purposes other than those of sections 162 and 163, be treated as an appeal by the person convicted against his conviction.

(3) The provisions of this section apply in the case of a finding by a court-martial of not guilty by reason of insanity as they apply in the case of the conviction of a person by court-martial.

Order for costs of defence on reference under section 165

166. (1) Where on a reference under section 165 the person who was tried by court-martial appears before the Court of Appeal, the court shall direct the payment by Government of such sums as appear to them reasonably sufficient to compensate that person for any expenses properly incurred by him for the purposes of his appearance.

(2) In any such case the Court of Appeal may, if they think fit, also direct the payment by Government of such sums as appear to them reasonably sufficient to compensate the person who was tried by court-martial for any expenses properly incurred by him in carrying on his defence before the court-martial or before any other court-martial before which were begun, but not concluded, proceedings for the offence with which he was charged before the court-martial by which he was tried.

(2) The Court of Appeal shall ordinarily give only one judgment which may be pronounced by the president or by such other member of the court as the president may direct but separate judgments shall be delivered if the president so directs.

(3) The judgment of any member of the Court of Appeal who is absent may be read by any other member.

Powers under Part 7 which are exercisable by single Judge or Commissioner

(4) Directions given under subsection (3) shall have the effect of written law and, to the extent that such directions may conflict with any other provisions of this Act or with any provision of any other written law, such directions shall prevail.

(5) For the purposes of this Act, a loaned person who is for the time being serving in the Armed Forces under conditions of loan service is deemed to be a member of the Armed Forces (of equivalent or higher rank) to the extent permitted under those conditions.

(2) These Regulations shall apply to a member on his discharge from military service or upon his death while in military service on or after 31st May 1986 in respect of military service after 31st May 1961.

(3) Any pension or gratuity granted under these Regulations shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations in force at the actual date of a member’s discharge from military service or death, as the case may be.

(4) Whenever His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan is satisfied that it is equitable that any provision of these Regulations should have retrospective effect from any date after 1st December 1960 in order to confer a benefit upon or remove a disability attaching to any person, that provision may be given retrospective effect for that purpose.

PART 2

GENERAL

Pensions etc. not of right

4. (1) No person shall have an absolute right to compensation for past military service or to pension, gratuity or other allowance, nor shall anything in any provision of these Regulations affect the right of His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan to cancel the commission of any officer, or of the competent authority to discharge from military service or require the discharge from military service of any member, at any time and without compensation.

(2) Where it is established to the satisfaction of His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan that a member have been guilty of negligence, irregularity or misconduct, His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan may reduce or withhold altogether the pension, gratuity or other allowance for which such member or any other person would have become eligible but for the provisions of these Regulations.

(3) If a member is discharged from military service for any such negligence, irregularity or misconduct, no pension, gratuity or other allowance shall be granted, unless in any special case His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan otherwise directs, and any such direction may, irrespective of the wishes of the member or other person concerned, also determine whether any pension or gratuity shall be in the form of a reduced pension or gratuity.

Maximum pension

5. (1) Subject to sub-regulation (2), a pension granted to a member under these Regulations shall not exceed three-fourths of the highest pensionable emoluments drawn by him at any time in the course of his military service.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation, an additional pension granted in respect of injury shall not be taken into account; but where the member is granted, such an additional pension under these Regulations, the amount thereof together with the remainder of his pension shall not exceed five-sixths of his highest pensionable emoluments at any time in the course of his military service.

Pensions etc. not to be assignable

6. (1) A pension, gratuity or other allowance granted under these Regulations shall not be assignable or transferable except for the purpose of satisfying —

(a) a debt due to the Government; or

(b) an order of any court for the payment of periodical sums of money towards the maintenance of the wife, former wife or minor child, whether legitimate or not, of the member to whom the pension, gratuity or other allowance has been granted, and shall not be liable to be attached, sequestered or levied upon for or in respect of any debt or claim whatever except a debt due to the Government.

[Subsidiary]

(2) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan that —

(a) a debt is due to the Government from a member to or in respect of whom a pension, gratuity or other allowance may be or has been granted; or

(b) an overpayment of such pension, gratuity or other allowance has been made, such debt or overpayment may be recovered from such member by deducting the amount from any such pension, gratuity or other allowance.

Pensions etc. to cease on bankruptcy

7. (1) If any person to whom a pension or other allowance has been granted under these Regulations is adjudicated bankrupt or is declared insolvent by judgment of any competent court, then such pension or allowance shall forthwith cease.

(2) If any member is adjudicated bankrupt or declared insolvent as mentioned in sub-regulation (1) either —

(a) after discharge from military service in circumstances in which he is eligible for pension or allowance under these Regulations but before such pension or allowance is granted; or

(b) before such discharge from military service, and he shall not have obtained his discharge from bankruptcy or insolvency at the date of discharge from military service, then in the former case, any pension or allowance eventually granted to him shall cease as from the date of adjudication or declaration as the case may be and, in the latter case, the pension or allowance may be granted but shall cease forthwith and not become payable.

(3) Where a pension or allowance ceases by reason of this regulation, His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan may during the remainder of such person's life, or during such shorter period or periods, either continuous or discontinuous, as His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan shall think fit, direct all or any part of the moneys to which such person would have been entitled by way of pension or allowance, had he not become bankrupt or insolvent, to be paid to, or applied for the maintenance or benefit of, all or any to the exclusion of the other or others, of such person and any wife, child or children of his, in such proportions and manner as His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan thinks proper, and such moneys shall be paid or applied accordingly.

(4) Moneys applied for the discharge of the debts of the person whose pension or allowance has so ceased shall, for the purposes of this regulation, be regarded as applied for his benefit.

(5) When a person whose pension or allowance has so ceased obtains his discharge from bankruptcy or insolvency, His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan may direct that the pension or allowance shall be restored as from the date of such discharge or any later date, and the pension or allowance shall be restored accordingly.

Pensions etc. may cease on conviction

8. (1) If any person to whom a pension or other allowance has been granted under these Regulations is sentenced to death or a term of imprisonment by any competent court for any offence, such pension or allowance shall, if His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan so directs, cease from such date as His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan determines.

(2) If any person is sentenced as mentioned in sub-regulation (1) after his discharge from military service in circumstances in which he is eligible for pension or allowance under these Regulations but before the pension or allowance is granted, then the provisions of sub-regulation (1) applies as respects any pension or allowance which may be granted to him.

(3) Where a pension or allowance ceases by reason of this regulation, His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan may direct all or any part of the moneys to which such person would have been entitled by way of pension or allowance had he not been sentenced as mentioned in sub-regulation (1) to be paid, or applied in the same manner in all respects as prescribed in regulation 7, and such moneys shall be paid or applied accordingly.

(4) If such person after conviction at any time receives a free pardon, the pension or allowance shall be restored with retrospective effect; but, in determining whether arrears of such pension or allowance are payable to such person and in computing the amount thereof, account shall be taken of all moneys paid or applied under sub-regulation (3).

Pension etc. for soldier who is not efficient

11. Where a soldier is discharged from military service by the competent authority on the ground that he is unlikely to become, or has ceased to be, an efficient soldier, and a pension, gratuity or other allowance cannot otherwise be granted to him in accordance with these Regulations, His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan may, if His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan considers it justifiable in all the circumstances of the case, grant such pension, gratuity or other allowance as he thinks just and proper.

(B) in the case of a member commissioned or enlisted on or after 1st August 2011 or for a soldier who has opted to be engaged under the revised terms of engagement, for less than 18 years, be granted, in lieu of any gratuity under regulation 13, a pension under regulation 12 as if the words “15 years or more military service” or “18 years or more military service” were omitted from regulation 12;

[Subsidiary]

- (ii) subject to regulation 5, he may be granted on discharge from military service an additional pension at the annual rate of the proportion of his actual pensionable emoluments at the date of his injury appropriate to his case as show in the following table —

When his capacity to contribute to his own support is — slightly impaired	five sixtieths;
impaired	ten sixtieths;
materially impaired	fifteen sixtieths;
totally destroyed	twenty sixtieths;

Provided that the amount of the additional pension may be reduced to such an extent as His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan shall think reasonable where the injury is not the cause or the sole cause of his discharge from military service.

(2) If a member proceeding by a route approved by the competent authority to or from Brunei Darussalam at the commencement or termination of his military service therein, or of a period of leave therefrom, is permanently injured as a result of damage to the vessel, aircraft or vehicle in which he is travelling, or of any act of violence directed against such vessel, aircraft or vehicle, and the competent authority is satisfied that such damage or act is attributable to circumstances arising out of any war in which Brunei Darussalam may be engaged, such member is deemed for the purposes of this regulation to have been injured in the circumstances described in sub-regulation (1).

(3) In this regulation —

(a) save for the purposes of sub-regulation (1)(i), the word “member” and the expression “military service” shall be construed, wherever they occur, as if the word “officer” included an officer serving under agreement with the Government and the word “soldier” included a soldier serving under agreement with the Government;

(b) in relation to a person who, for the purposes of this regulation, is a member by virtue of sub-paragraph (a) only, the word “a” is deemed to have been substituted for the expression “an additional” occurring in sub-regulation (1)(ii) and in sub-regulation (1)(ii), the expression “pensionable emoluments” shall mean the emoluments enjoyed by such person which would have been pensionable emoluments if he had been a member for all the purposes of these Regulations.

Gratuity and reduced pension

17. (1) Subject to sub-regulation (6), any member to whom a pension is granted under these Regulations may, at his option exercisable as in this regulation provided, be paid in lieu of such pension a pension at the rate of three fourths of such pension together with a gratuity equal to fifteen times the amount of the reduction so made in the pension.

(2) An option exercisable in accordance with this regulation —

(a) shall be exercisable or revoked by notice in writing addressed to the competent authority;

(b) is deemed to have been exercised or revoked on the date on which such notice is received;

(c) shall be exercisable, and if exercised, may be revoked on or before the date of the member's discharge from military service:

Provided that His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan may, if His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan thinks fit, permit a member to exercise the option at any time between that date and the date on which a pension is granted to him.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation, the date of the final award shall be the date on which a member's pension is granted to him.

(4) If a member who has not exercised the option dies after he has been discharged from military service but before a pension has been finally awarded under these Regulations, His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan may grant a gratuity and a reduced pension as provided in sub-regulation (1), as if the member before his death had exercised the option.

(5) A member who is paid a reduced pension under sub-regulation (1) shall, if living after the expiration of 15 years from the date of his discharge from military service, be eligible for the full pension as if there had been no reduction.

(6) This regulation does not apply to a person who, for the purposes of regulation 16 is a member by virtue only of sub-regulation (3)(a) of that regulation.

21. (1) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, qualifying military service shall be the inclusive period between the date on which a member begins to draw pay after attaining the age of 18 years in respect of military service and the date of his leaving military service, without deduction of any period during which he is absent on leave.

(2) Except as provided in regulation 25, no period which is not qualifying military service by virtue of sub-regulation (1) shall be taken into account as pensionable military service.

Continuity of military service

22. (1) Except as otherwise provided in these Regulations, only continuous military service shall be taken into account as qualifying military service or as pensionable military service:

Provided that —

(a) any break in military service caused by temporary suspension of employment not arising from misconduct or voluntary discharge from military service shall be disregarded for the purposes of this paragraph;

[Subsidiary]

(b) any period during which a soldier has been absent from duty while in military service by reason of his —

- (i) any pension previously granted to him in respect of previous military service; and

Emoluments to be taken for computing pension or gratuity

24. (1) For the purposes of computing the amount of the pension or gratuity of a member who has had a period of not less than one year's pensionable military service before his discharge from military service, there shall be taken into account the full annual pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him in respect of the last substantive rank held by him for a period of not less than 12 months at the date of his discharge from military service.

(2) If a soldier is granted a commission and is discharged from military service before completing 5 years service from the date of his commissioning, his pension shall be assessed by taking into account the full annual pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him in the highest substantive non-commissioned rank which he held immediately before such commissioning as if he is discharged from military service as a soldier:

Previous pensionable civil public service

25. (1) Where any member or other person in respect of such member has become eligible for payment of any award under any provision of these Regulations and the pensionable military service of such member is required to be taken into account in computing such award, then such pensionable military service may, if His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan thinks fit, be deemed to include any previous pensionable civil public service of such member in respect of which no award has been made to such member or any other person, in respect of such member under the Pensions Act (Chapter 38):

Provided that no previous pensionable civil public service of such member shall be taken into account unless such member has completed not less than 10 years pensionable military service.

(2) In this regulation, “previous pensionable civil public service” means, in relation to a member, the previous service of such member which was, when completed, and continues to be, at the time of such eligibility of such member or other person in respect of such member, qualifying and pensionable service of such member in a pensionable office for the purposes of the Pensions Act (Chapter 38).

(2) If a female graduate member, who has not given the notice under sub-regulation (1), dies after she has been discharged but before a pension, gratuity or allowance has been awarded, it shall be lawful for His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan to grant a pension, gratuity or allowance under whichever provisions of these Regulations or the Pensions Act (Chapter 38) as shall confer the greater benefits.

REGULATIONS

Commencement: 28th January 2006

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Royal Brunei Armed Forces (Summary Jurisdiction) Regulations.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations —

“competent authority” means the Commander or such other officer or officers as His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan may from time to time appoint to exercise all or any of the functions conferred or imposed upon the competent authority under these Regulations;

“detachment” means a part of a unit which is so separated from the unit to which it belongs that the commanding officer of that unit cannot effectively exercise his disciplinary powers as commanding officer over it;

“subordinate commander”, except where otherwise expressly provided, means the officer who, for the time being, commands a squadron, company, ship or an equivalent body which forms part of a unit and who is for the time being responsible for disciplinary matters to the commanding officer of the unit, and includes any officer appointed to be a subordinate commander by an officer in command not below the rank of colonel;

“unit”, except where otherwise expressly provided, means either any independent portion of the Royal Brunei Armed Forces which is not higher in the organisation than a battalion or its equivalent or any equivalent body of troops.

Appointment of commanding officers and subordinate commanders

3. Any appointment under these Regulations of an officer to be a commanding officer or a subordinate commander —

(a) may be made subject to restrictions, reservations, exceptions or conditions;

[Subsidiary]

(b) may designate the officer appointed by name, by reference to any appointment or office held by him, or by reference to a class of officers of which the officer appointed is a member, and shall, unless otherwise specified, extend to any officer for the time being performing the duties of the officer so named, or holding, or acting in the place of the holder of, that appointment or office, or acting in the place of a member of that class;

(c) may be made in relation to a particular person or to any class or group of persons, or a particular case or for a class of case;

(d) may be varied or revoked, either wholly or in part, by the authority by whom it was made by his successors or by any authority superior in command.

General definition of commanding officer

4. Except where otherwise expressly provided in these Regulations, the commanding officer of a person subject to military law who is charged with an offence is either —

(a) the officer who has been appointed by the competent authority to be commanding officer while able to effectively exercise his powers as such; or

(b) where no appointment has been made under paragraph (a), the officer who is, for the time being, in immediate command of the unit or detachment to which the accused belongs.

Commanding officer of a unit or detachment place under command of another commanding officer

5. Where a unit or detachment is placed for disciplinary purposes under command of the commanding officer of another unit or detachment, that officer is the commanding officer of a member of the unit or detachment so placed under his command who is charged with the offence, and the officer commanding the latter unit or detachment is subordinate commander for the purposes of these Regulations.

Delegation of powers by commanding officers

6. (1) Subject to regulation 11, an officer who is a commanding officer within the meaning of regulation 4 or 5 may delegate to a subordinate commander of the rank of Captain or who is under his command and directly responsible to him for disciplinary matters, the power to investigate and deal summarily with charges with which he himself may so deal under regulation 9:

Provided that such delegation shall not include —

(a) the power to remand the accused for trial by court-martial; and

(b) the power to stay further proceedings on a charge.

(2) When a commanding officer delegates the power to investigate and deal summarily with charges in accordance with sub-regulation (1), he may, in addition to the restrictions imposed by regulation 11, impose such further restrictions as seem to be proper upon the exercise of that power by the officer to whom it is delegated.

89. (1) The proceedings of courts-martial shall be recorded in accordance with the following provisions —

(a) the proceedings of a court-martial shall be recorded in writing in accordance with the appropriate form set out in Schedule 3 and in sufficient detail to enable the confirming officer to follow the course of the proceedings and to judge the merits of the case;

(2) When a person has been employed under rule 29, a transcript of his record of the proceedings need be made only of that part which relates to a charge of which the accused has been found guilty:

Provided that —

(a) where there is a Judge Advocate he may, where a plea of guilty (including a plea of guilty under rule 39) has been accepted and he has himself made a record sufficient to comply with the requirements of subrule (1), before or after the conclusion of the trial, direct that the verbatim record need not be transcribed;

(b) where there is a Judge Advocate and a finding of guilty has been made as provided by rule 44(1), the Judge Advocate may, before or after the conclusion of the trial, direct that no transcript need be made of any part of the verbatim record relating to that charge which has in his opinion become no longer material to the confirming officer's consideration of the merits of the case;

[Subsidiary]

(c) the confirming officer, any reviewing authority or the Court of Appeal, the Judge Advocate General may, notwithstanding any acquittal or application of subrule (2)(a) or (b), require the transcription of the verbatim record of the proceedings or any part of them.

The references in paragraph (c) to the confirming authority or a reviewing authority refer also to any officer or authority who would have been the confirming officer or a reviewing authority if the accused had been found guilty of any charge.

Exhibits

90. (1) Subject to subrule (2), any document or thing admitted in evidence shall be made an exhibit.

(2) When an original document or book is produced to the court by a witness, the court may at the request of the witness compare a copy of it or an extract of the relevant parts therefrom with the original, and after it has satisfied itself that such copy or extract is correct and the president or the Judge Advocate has certified thereon that the court has compared it with the original and found it correct, the court may return the document or book to the witness and attach the copy or extract to the record of the proceedings as an exhibit.

(3) Every exhibit shall —

(a) be marked with a number or letter and be signed by the president or Judge Advocate or have a label bearing a number or letter and the signature of the president or Judge Advocate affixed to it;

(b) be attached to or kept with the record of the proceedings, unless in the opinion of the court having regard to the nature of the exhibit or for other good reason it is not expedient to attach it to or keep it with record.

Custody and inspection of record of proceedings during trial

(2) With the permission of the court, the prosecutor or the accused may at any reasonable time before the trial is concluded have a particular part of the record of the proceedings read to him, and, if proper precautions are taken for its safety, inspect any exhibit.

CONFIRMATION, REVISION AND PROMULGATION

Confirmation and promulgation

92. (1) When a confirming officer receives the record of the proceedings of a court-martial and the finding of the court requires confirmation, he shall record his decision thereon and on any sentence and any order which the court may have made under section 125, on the record of the proceedings in the form set out in Schedule 3, and such record of his decision shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

(2) When a court has accepted a plea of guilty made under rule 39(2), the confirming officer may confirm its finding notwithstanding that the court has accepted the plea without the concurrence of the convening officer if, in the opinion of the confirming officer, it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(3) (a) When a court has rejected a plea to the jurisdiction of the court or a plea in bar of trial or has overruled an objection to a charge, it shall not be necessary for the confirming officer to approve specifically the decision of the court, but his approval shall be implied from his confirming the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates.

(b) If he disapproves the decision of the court to reject the plea or to overrule the objection, he shall withhold confirmation of the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates.

(4) A confirming officer may state his reasons for withholding confirmation in any case, but if he withholds confirmation where a court has rejected a plea to the jurisdiction or a plea in bar of trial or has overruled an objection to the charge, because he disapproves this decision of the court, he shall when recording his decision under subrule (1) state that he has withheld confirmation for this reason.

(5) If the sentence of a court-martial is informally expressed, the confirming officer may, in confirming the sentence, vary the form thereof so that it shall be properly expressed.

(6) Whenever it appears that there is sufficient evidence or a plea of guilty under either subrule (1) or (2) of rule 41 to justify the finding of the court, such findings and any lawful sentence consequent thereon may be confirmed, and if confirmed shall be valid, notwithstanding any deviation from these Rules, if the accused has not been prejudiced by such deviation.

[Subsidiary]

(7) When a confirming officer has confirmed a finding and sentence of a court or has withheld confirmation thereof, he shall send the record of the proceedings to the commanding officer of the accused for promulgation to the accused of the finding and sentence, or of the fact that confirmation has been withheld, as the case may be. The fact of promulgation shall be recorded on the record of the proceedings in the form set out in Schedule 3.

(8) If confirmation has been withheld because the confirming officer disapproves the court's decision to reject a plea to the jurisdiction or a plea in bar of trial or to overrule an objection to the charge, the accused shall be so informed.

Lost or missing original record of proceedings

93. (1) If before confirmation the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and a copy exists, such copy may, if the president or the Judge Advocate certifies it to be correct, be accepted and used in lieu of the original.

(2) If before confirmation the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and no copy thereof exists, but evidence of the proceedings of the court can be procured to enable the record or part thereof which has been lost to be reconstituted sufficiently to permit the confirming officer to follow the course of the proceedings and to judge the merits of the case, the record as so reconstituted may, with the consent of the accused, be accepted and used in lieu of the original:

Provided that where part only of the original record of the proceeding of a court-martial has been lost, and the part which remains is sufficient to enable the confirming officer to follow the course of the proceedings and judge the merits of the case, such remaining part may, with the consent of the accused, be accepted and used as if it were the complete record, and in such case it shall not be necessary to reconstitute the part of the record which has been lost.

(3) If before confirmation, the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and such loss cannot be made good under either subrule (1) or (2), the confirming officer shall withhold confirmation and shall record his decision in the form set out in Schedule 3.

Loss of original record of proceedings after confirmation

94. If after confirmation, the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and a copy thereof is certified by the president or the Judge Advocate to be correct, or a sufficient record of the charge, finding, sentence and proceedings before the court and of the confirmation of the finding and sentence remains or can be reconstituted to permit the case being reviewed or the sentence reconsidered, such copy or reconstituted record or remaining part of the record may be accepted and used in lieu of the original.

CUSTODY OF RECORD AFTER CONFIRMATION

Custody and preservation of record of proceedings after confirmation

95. For the purposes of section 128(1), the prescribed period during which the record of the proceedings of a court-martial shall be kept in the custody of the Judge Advocate General shall be 6 years from the conclusion of the trial.

Petitions

96. (1) If an accused who has been —

(a) sentenced by a court-martial; or

(b) found by a court-martial to be unfit to stand his trial or to be not guilty by reason of insanity, wishes to petition before confirmation against the finding or sentence or both, he shall present a petition to the confirming officer in the form set out in Schedule 6.

(2) If an accused who has been —

(a) sentenced by court-martial; or

(b) found by a court-martial to be unfit to stand his trial or to be not guilty by reason of insanity,

(3) If an accused who has been sentenced by a court-martial wishes to petition after promulgation against the sentence, he shall present a petition to a reviewing authority at any time within 6 months of promulgation in the form set out in Schedule 6.

Exceptions from rules on account of exigencies of service

99. (1) Where in the opinion of the officer who is or would be responsible for convening a court-martial to try the accused or, if he is not available, of the senior officer on the spot, the exigencies of the service render compliance with all or any of the provisions of the rules mentioned in subrule (3) impracticable, the officer who is or would be responsible for convening a court-martial to try the accused, or the senior officer on the spot, as the case may be, may make a declaration to that effect in the form set out in Schedule 3.

(2) Any declaration made under subrule (1) by the senior officer on the spot shall be forwarded by him as soon as possible to the officer who is or would be responsible for convening a court-martial to try the accused.

(3) The provisions of these Rules in respect of which a declaration may be made under subrule (1) are —

(d) rule 22(2), (3) and (4) insofar as it provides that the documents specified therein shall be given to the accused not less than 24 hours before his trial.

(4) If an accused is brought to trial by court-martial or is dealt with summarily by an appropriate superior authority, any declaration which has been made in his case under subrule (1) shall be attached to the record of the proceedings of the court-martial or to the record made by the appropriate superior authority, as the case may be.

Exceptions from Rules in interests of security

100. (1) When in the opinion of the officer who is or would be responsible for convening a court-martial to try the accused, or, if he is not available, of the senior officer on the spot, a charge sheet, summary or abstract of evidence or other document which, or a copy of which, is required under these Rules to be given to an accused contains information the disclosure of which would or might be directly or indirectly useful to an enemy, the officer who is or would be responsible for convening a court-martial to try the accused, or the senior officer on the spot, as the case may be, may make a declaration to that effect in the form set out in Schedule 3 specifying the document concerned.

(2) Any declaration made under subrule (1) by the senior officer on the spot shall be forwarded by him as soon as possible to the officer who is or would be responsible for convening a court-martial to try the accused.

(3) When a declaration has been made under subrule (1) it shall not be necessary to give to the accused any document mentioned in that declaration, or any copy of such a document, and it shall be a sufficient compliance with these Rules if the accused is given a proper opportunity to inspect such document while preparing and making his defence.

(4) If an accused is brought to trial by court-martial or is dealt with summarily by an appropriate superior authority, any declaration which has been made in his case under subrule (1) shall be attached to the record of the proceedings of the court-martial or to the record made by the appropriate superior authority, as the case may be.
