Dealings in gold and foreign currency

(2) Where a person buys or borrows any gold or foreign currency in Brunei or, being a person resident in the scheduled territories, does any act which involves, is in association with or is preparatory to the buying or borrowing of gold or foreign currency outside Brunei, he shall comply with such conditions as to the use to which it may be put or the period for which it may be retained as may from time to time be notified to him by the Controller.

Surrender of gold and foreign

5. (1) (a) Every person in or resident in Brunei who is entitled to sell, or to procure the sale of, any gold, or any foreign currency to which this section applies, and is not an authorised dealer, shall offer it, or cause it to be offered, for sale to an authorised dealer, unless the Controller consents to his retention and use thereof or he disposes thereof to any other person with the permission of the Controller.

(b) The foreign currency to which this section applies is such foreign currency (hereafter in this Act referred to as "specified currency") as may from time to time be specified by order of His Majesty in Council.

(2) If a person who has obtained the consent of the Controller to his retention and use of any gold or specified currency, and has stated in an application for the consent that he requires it for a particular purpose, no longer requires the gold or currency for that purpose, subsection (1) shall thereupon apply to him in relation to that gold or currency as if the Controller had revoked his consent to his retention and use thereof.

(3) A person who acquires any gold or specified currency from an authorised dealer shall be treated for the purposes of this section as if the Controller had consented to the retention and use by him of that gold or currency (subject, however, to any conditions notified to him in accordance with subsection (2) of section 4), and as if any statement made by him in an application for that gold or currency, as to the purpose for which he requires it, had been made by him in an application for the Controller's consent to his retention and use thereof.

(4) Where a person has become bound under this section to offer or cause to be offered any gold or specified currency for sale to an authorised dealer, he shall not be deemed to comply with that obligation by any offer made or caused to be made by him, if the offer is an offer to sell at a price exceeding that authorised by the Controller, or without payment of any usual proper charges of the authorised dealer, or otherwise on any unusual terms.

(5) Where a person has become bound under this section to offer or cause to be offered any gold or specified currency for sale to an authorised dealer and has not complied with that obligation, the Minister may direct that that gold or currency shall vest in the Controller, and it shall vest in the Controller accordingly free from any mortgage, pledge or charge, and the Controller may deal with it as he thinks fit, but the Controller shall pay to the person who would but for the direction be entitled to the gold or currency such sum as he would have received therefore if he had sold it to an authorised dealer in pursuance of an offer made under this section at the time when the vesting occurred.

(6) In any proceedings in respect of a contravention of the provisions of this section, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that the gold or currency in question has not been offered for sale to an authorised dealer.

6. (1) Every person in Brunei by whom or to whose order (whether directly or indirectly) any gold or any specified currency in the form of notes is held in Brunei but who is not entitled to sell it or procure its sale shall notify the Controller in writing that he so holds that gold or currency.

cheques, etc.

7. (1) This section applies to any document of a kind intended to enable the person to whom the document is issued to obtain foreign currency from some other person on the credit of the person issuing it, and in particular to any traveller's cheque or other draft or letter of credit so intended.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the person issuing a document to which this section applies, and the person to whom it is issued, shall be deemed respectively to sell and buy foreign currency and where foreign currency is obtained by means of the documents to sell and buy that foreign currency.

(3) Any such document not expressed in terms of sterling or local currency shall, if it is of a kind intended to enable the person to whom it is issued to obtain any specified currency, be treated also for the purposes of this Act as itself being specified currency.

(4) Every person in or resident in Brunei who holds or to whose order there is held any document to which this section applies, being a document expressed in terms of sterling or local currency, shall encash it or cause it to be encashed in the scheduled territories with the person issuing it or with a banker, unless the Controller consents to his retention and use thereof and, where in his application for that consent he has stated that he requires it for a particular purpose, unless also he still requires it for that purpose.

(5) A person who acquires any document to which subsection (4) applies from an authorised dealer shall be treated for the purposes of that subsection as if the Controller had consented to the retention and use by him of that document (subject, however, to any conditions notified to him in accordance with subsection (2) of section 4), and as if any statement made by him in an application for that document as to the purpose for which he requires it had been made by him in an application for the Controller's consent to his retention and use thereof.

17. (1) Where —

(a) the holder of a security is a nominee and the person for whom he is a nominee is resident outside the scheduled territories; or

(b) the holder of a security is not a nominee and is resident outside the scheduled territories;

then, except with the permission of the Controller, no person resident in Brunei shall do any act whereby the holder becomes his nominee in respect of the security.

(2) Except with the permission of the Controller, a person resident in Brunei for whom the holder of a security is a nominee shall not do any act whereby —

(b) the holder, not being a person resident outside the scheduled territories, holds the security as nominee for a person resident outside the scheduled territories.

(3) Where the holder of a security is a nominee, then, except with the permission of the Controller, neither he, if he is resident in Brunei, nor any person resident in Brunei through whose agency the exercise of all or any of the holder's rights in respect of the security are controlled, shall —

(b) do any act whereby he ceases to be a person bound to give effect to the instructions of another person in relation to the security, unless the person who theretofore instructed him is resident in the scheduled territories and not elsewhere.

(4) Where the holder of a security is not a nominee and is resident in Brunei, then, except with the permission of the Controller, he shall not do any act whereby he becomes the nominee of another person in respect of the security, unless that other person is resident in the scheduled territories and not elsewhere.

Deposit of certificates of

18. (1) This section and section 19 shall apply to any security except —

(a) a security which is registered in Brunei otherwise than in a subsidiary register, and on which none of the dividends or interests is payable on presentment of a coupon; and

(b) any such other securities as may be prescribed; and in the following provisions of this section and in section 19 the expressions “security”, “certificate of title” and “coupon” mean respectively a security to which the said sections apply, a certificate of title to such a security, and a coupon representing dividends or interest on such a security.

(2) It shall be the duty of every person by whom or to whose order (whether directly or indirectly) a certificate of title is held in Brunei, and of every person resident in Brunei by whom or to whose order (whether directly or indirectly) a certificate of title is held outside Brunei, to cause the certificate of title to be kept at all times, except with the permission of the Controller, in the custody of an authorised depository, and nothing in this Part shall prohibit the doing of anything for the purpose of complying with the requirements of this subsection.

(3) Except with the permission of the Controller, an authorised depository shall not part with any certificate of title or coupon required under this section to be in the custody of an authorised depository:

Provided that this subsection shall not prohibit an authorised depositary —

(b) from parting with a certificate of title, for the purpose of obtaining payment of capital moneys payable on the security, to the person entrusted with payment thereof; or

(c) from parting with a coupon in the ordinary course for collection.

(4) Except with the permission of the Controller, no capital moneys, interest or dividends shall be paid in Brunei on any security except to or to the order of an authorised depositary having the custody of the certificate of title to that security, so, however, that this subsection shall not be taken as restricting the manner in which any sums lawfully paid on account of the capital moneys, interest or dividends may be dealt with by the person receiving them.

(5) Except with the permission of the Controller, an authorised depositary shall not do any act whereby he recognises or gives effect to the substitution of one person for another as the person from whom he receives instructions in relation to a certificate of title or coupon, unless there is produced to him the prescribed evidence that he is not by so doing giving effect to any transaction which is prohibited by this Act.

(6) Where a certificate of title which under this section should for the time being be in the custody of an authorised depositary is not in the custody of an authorised de-

(7) Except with the permission of the Controller, no person in or resident in Brunei shall, in the case of a certificate of title with coupons (whether attached or on separate coupon sheets), detach any of the coupons otherwise than in the ordinary course for collection.

Additional provisions as to deposited certificates

19. (1) Where a certificate of title to a security is by section 18 required to be and is in the custody of an authorised depository, the provisions of this section shall, except so far as the Controller otherwise directs, have effect in relation thereto until —

(a) there are delivered to him the prescribed declarations as to the ownership of the security and the residence of the owners thereof; and

(b) in the case of a certificate of title which —

- (i) would ordinarily be accompanied by coupons (whether attached or on separate coupon sheets); but
- (ii) when it comes into the custody of the authorised depository, wants, in order to render it complete, any coupons which would not in the ordinary course have been detached for collection;

there have also been deposited with him the coupons so wanting at the time when the certificate of title comes into his custody:

Provided that where the said declarations have been delivered to an authorised depository and he has parted with the certificate of title, paragraph (a) shall not again apply on the certificate coming into the custody of another authorised depositary or again coming into his own custody.

(2) Except with the permission of the Controller, the authorised depositary shall not part with or destroy the certificate of title or any coupons belonging thereto, otherwise than as mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (c) of the proviso to subsection (3) of section 18, or do any act whereby he recognises or gives effect to the substitution of one person for another as the person from whom he receives instructions in relation thereto.

Provided that where the person from whom an authorised depositary receives instructions in relation to any certificate of title becomes bankrupt in Brunei or dies, this subsection shall not prohibit the authorised depositary from recognising the trustee in bankruptcy or personal representative as the person entitled to give instructions in relation to the certificate of title.

(3) The authorised depositary shall place any capital moneys, dividends or interest on the security received by him to the credit of the person by virtue of whose authority he received them, but shall not permit any part of the sums received to be dealt with except with the permission of the Controller.

20. (1) The Controller may, if in his opinion there are circumstances rendering it necessary or expedient so to do, by order direct that this section shall apply to such securities as may be prescribed, being securities on which capital moneys, dividends or interest are payable in a specified currency or as respects which the holder has an option to require payment of any capital moneys, dividends or interest thereon in a specified currency.

Special provisions as to dealings in certain securities

(2) Except with the permission of the Controller, no person shall, in Brunei, and no person resident in Brunei shall outside Brunei, transfer or do anything which affects his rights or powers in relation to, any security to which this section applies.

Validation of certain transfers

21. (1) The title of any person to a security for which he has given value on a transfer thereof, and the title of all persons claiming through or under him, shall, notwithstanding that the transfer, or any previous transfer, or the issue of the security, was by reason of the residence of any person concerned other than the first-mentioned person prohibited by the provisions of this Act relating to the transfer or issue of securities, be valid unless the first-mentioned person had notice of the facts by reason of which it was prohibited.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (1), the Controller may issue a certificate declaring, in relation to a security, that any acts done before the issue of the certificate purporting to effect the issue or transfer of the security, being acts which were prohibited by this Act, are to be, and are always to have been, as valid as if they had been done with the permission of the Controller, and the said acts shall have effect accordingly.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of any person to prosecution for any offence against this Act.

of Part IV to secondary
securities

(2) Subsections (2) and (3) of section 21 shall apply in relation to any transfer prohibited by this section as they apply in relation to a transfer prohibited by this Act of a security.

(3) In this section, the expression “nominee” has, in relation to any policy, annuity or insurance the same meaning as the said expression has in Part IV in relation to a security.

32. (1) Except with the permission of the Controller no person resident in Brunei shall settle any property, otherwise than by will, so as to confer an interest in the property on a person who, at the time of the settlement, is resident outside the scheduled territories, or shall exercise, otherwise than by will, any power of appointment, whether created by will or otherwise, in favour of a person who, at the time of the exercise of the power, is resident outside the scheduled territories. circumstances of the case does not know and has no reason to suspect that the body corporate is controlled as aforesaid.

(4) For the purposes of this section and of the Second Schedule, persons resident in Brunei or outside the scheduled territories shall be deemed to control a body corporate notwithstanding that other persons are associated with them in the control thereof if they can together override those other persons.

(5) In this section the expression “security” includes a secondary security.

(b) the sum collected shall be credited by the banker to a blocked account of that person.

3. Where a direction is given that a sum is to be paid or credited to a blocked account only, then, notwithstanding the direction, the sum may, with the consent of the person to whom it is to be paid or credited, and subject to the requirements of Part IV of this Act, be invested instead in the purchase for that person of any such investments as may be prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (a) of the proviso to paragraph 4.

4. Any sum standing to the credit of a blocked account shall not be dealt with except with the permission of the Controller:

Provided that the form of any bankruptcy notice shall be such as may be prescribed by the Controller.

4. (1) In any proceedings in a prescribed court and in any arbitration proceedings, a claim for the recovery of any debt shall not be defeated by reason only of the debt not being payable without the permission of the Controller and of that permission not having been given or having been revoked.

Provided that nothing in this subparagraph shall be construed as affecting the application of the provisions of Part III of this Act to payments by any trustee, liquidator, personal representative or other person in any such bankruptcy, winding up or administration.

(2) The provisions of this Act restricting the making of settlements shall not apply to any deed of arrangement made for the benefit of creditors generally, and the provisions of subparagraph (1) shall apply in relation to proceedings under any deed of arrangement as they apply in relation to proceedings in bankruptcy.
