PART II

ADMINISTRATION

Director and Deputy Director of Fisheries.

3. (1) His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan may appoint a Director of Fisheries and a Deputy Director of Fisheries for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Director shall have the general supervision of all matters relating to fisheries throughout Brunei Darussalam.

(3) The Director may delegate the exercise of any or all of the powers conferred upon him by this Act to such persons as he may think fit.

4. (1) Any Authorised Officer and any police officer not below the rank of corporal, may without warrant —

Powers of Officers.

(a) stop, search and detain any vessel or vehicle which he has reason to believe is being used for fishing, or for carrying fish or fishing materials, contrary to the provisions of this Act or any regulations made thereunder, and may seize such vessel or vehicles, and any engine, fish, nets, instruments, fishing materials or other appliances found therein;

(b) search and examine any kilong, nets, instruments, materials and appliances used in catching fish and effect the removal of any unlicensed kilong the ownership of which cannot be determined;

(c) arrest any person found committing or attempting to commit or abetting the commission of an offence against this Act or any regulations made thereunder.

(2) An Authorised Officer and any police officer not in uniform when acting under this Act, shall on demand declare his office and produce to any person against whom he is taking action such identification card as the Director or the Commissioner of Police respectively shall prescribe.

(3) It shall not be an offence for any person to refuse to comply with any request, demand or order made by any Authorised Officer or any police officer (not in uniform), if such Authorised Officer or police officer refuses on demand being made by such person to declare his office or produce his identification card.

PART III

PROVISIONS FOR PROTECTION OF FISHERIES

Regulations.

5. The Minister may make regulations relating to fishing and fisheries —

(a) to regulate or prohibit the erection, maintenance, working, repair and lighting of kilong;

(t) to prescribe fees for any licence to be issued or for any other service performed under this Act or any regulations made thereunder.

PART IV

INCIDENTAL AND SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

6. (1) A licensing officer may, subject to the provisions of this Act and of any regulations made thereunder, issue to any person a licence, on such terms and conditions as he may specify, exempting him from any prohibition or obligation imposed by the provisions of this Act or any regulations made thereunder.

(2) A licensing officer may attach to a licence such conditions as the Director or any Authorised Officer may deem to be appropriate.

(3) A licensing officer may, with the approval of the Director, refuse to issue a licence under this section or may revoke any licence already issued.

Validity of licence.

7. (1) Every licence issued under this Act or any regulations made thereunder shall, unless the contrary is stated in such regulations or in the licence, expire on 31st December of the year in which it is issued.

(2) A licence issued under this Act shall not be transferable.

Partners.

8. (1) Two or more persons carrying on business in partnership shall not be required to obtain more than one licence under this Act in respect of such partnership.

(2) In the case of a licence issued under this Act in respect of partnership, the names of all the partners and, from time to time, the names of new partners, shall be disclosed to the licensing officer and shall be entered in the licence, and a licence to 2 or more persons shall not expire on the death or retirement from business of any one or more of the partners.

PART V

OFFENCES

Wilful damage to fishing implements.

9. Any person who wilfully damages or destroys kilongs, nets, lures or fishing implements shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Prohibition of use of poison or explosives.

10. (1) Any person who, except under the authority of a licence issued under this Act, uses any poisonous or explosives substance with intent to stupefy, poison or kill fish shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who is found in possession of fish which has been captured with the aid of any explosive or poisonous substance and who does not give satisfactory account as to how he came to be in possession thereof, shall be guilty of an offence.

11. (1) Any person who does or attempts to do an act contrary to, or fails to comply with, the provisions of this Act or any regulations made thereunder shall be guilty of an offence, if no special penalty is provided, be liable to a fine of $2,500 and to imprisonment for one year.

Penalty.

(2) Where an offence is continued after conviction or where an order made under this Act is not obeyed within the time required, there shall be payable by the offender for each day that the offence or failure to obey is continued, a fine of $50; and where such offence is continued for a period exceeding 10 days after conviction, the offender shall be liable to imprisonment for 6 months.

12. Any vessels, vehicles, kilongs, nets, instruments or appliances used in the commission of any offence against this Act or of any regulations made thereunder and any fish caught in contravention of the provisions of this Act or of any regulations made thereunder may be forfeited to the Director of Fisheries and, if so forfeited, shall be disposed of in such manner as the Director of Fisheries may direct.

Forfeiture.

13. Any fish seized by an Authorised Officer or police officer in accordance with the provisions of this Act may be sold forthwith, and the proceeds of sale thereof shall be held to abide the result of any prosecution or claim or, where there is no prosecution or claim, shall be paid to the person from whom the fish was seized.

Sale of fish pending result of prosecution.

14. (1) A magistrate may order the confiscation of any vessels, vehicles, kilongs, nets, instruments or appliances used in the commission of any offence.

Confiscation of vessels, etc.

(2) A magistrate may order the removal of any offending kilongs or part thereof, and any costs incurred by an Authorised Officer in effecting such removal shall be borne by the owner of the kilongs so removed.

Responsibility of partners.

15. When a licence is granted to 2 or more persons carrying on business in partnership every such person shall be liable for any act and omission of the other or others of them unless he proves to the satisfaction of the court that he has no knowledge of, or that he in no way directly or indirectly contributed to, the commission of the act or the making of the omission by such other or others.

Power to
offences.

16. The Director may compound any offence against this Act or any regulations made thereunder for a sum of money not less than one-fifth of the maximum fine provided for such offence.

Offence committed by a servant.

17. Where an offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder is committed by a servant, the master in the course of whose employment the servant so committed the offence shall also be guilty of the offence unless the master proves to the satisfaction of the court —

(a) that he used due diligence to secure compliance with this Act or the regulations made thereunder; and

(b) that the offence was committed without his knowledge, consent or connivance.

Exemptions.

18. The Director may in writing exempt from the provisions of this Act and all regulations, either absolutely or conditionally, any person attached to a scientific institution who fishes only for the purposes of scientific research.
