Regulations made under section 128

EDUCATION (PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION (PTA)) REGULATIONS

Commencement: 24th January 2004

Citation.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Education (Parent-Teacher Association (PTA)) Regulations.

Interpretation.

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires —

“office-bearer” means a member of the committee established under regulations 5(2) and (4);

“Parent-Teacher Association” means a Parent-Teacher Association established by regulation 3.

Establishment of Parent-Teacher Association.

3. (1) There shall be established in every school a parent-teacher association to be named as the Parent-Teacher Association (in these Regulations referred to as the PTA) consisting of —

(a) all the teachers teaching in the school;

(b) the parents of the pupils attending such school; and

(c) the head teacher or the principal of the school as an ex officio member and the PTA’s adviser.

(2) Every parent and teacher in the school shall be a member of the PTA.

(3) For the purposes of these Regulations, the PTA is not a society within the meaning of any written law relating to the registration of societies.

Aims and limitations of PTA.

4. (1) The aims of the PTA shall be —

(a) to provide a forum and service for the welfare, development and progress of the pupils in the school;

(b) to assist and complement the effort of the school in meeting the material requirements and needs of the pupils in their activities;

(c) to enable parents and teachers in the school to exchange ideas and information on education in general;

(d) to give opportunity to the parents and teachers in the school to consult each other as to the manner of improving the standard of education of their children in general; and

(e) to enable parents and teachers in the school to increase the finances of the school and upgrade the physical facilities for the purpose of upgrading the teaching and learning facilities.

(2) The activities of the PTA shall be directed to the welfare, development and progress of the pupils in the school where the PTA is established.

(3) The PTA may, with the permission of the head teacher or the principal promote curricular and co-curricular activities inside or outside school, by utilising the skilled and specialised manpower from amongst members or non-members of the PTA for the purpose of upgrading the academic achievement or the overall progress of the pupils.

(4) The PTA shall be allowed to collect any contribution which is determined in the annual general meeting from members and the Registrar General shall be notified of the decision.

(5) The PTA shall not extend its jurisdiction to matters connected with the administration of the school, the employment and conditions of service of teachers and other staff in the school.

(6) The PTA shall not be the machinery for the settlement of disputes or other related matters as between the PTA and the head teacher or the principal or the staff of the school where the PTA is established, the District Education Officer, the Ministry or the Government.

Organisation and management.

5. (1) The PTA shall be established by the head teacher or the principal in every school.

(2) The PTA shall be managed by a committee in accordance with the constitution of the PTA.

(3) The committee shall comprise of not less than 5 and not more than 15 members who are elected in the annual general meeting of the PTA.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-regulation (2), the District Education Officer may appoint not more than 2 individuals who are non-members to be committee members in the case of government schools and in the case of private schools, the appointment shall be made by the board of governors of the school.

(5) The individuals mentioned in sub-regulation (4) shall be persons who have integrity, interest and proven to be able to contribute positively to the development of education.

(6) The District Education Officer or the board of governors shall obtain the approval of the Registrar General in respect of the appointment made under sub-regulation (4).

Registration of PTA.

6. (1) Where a PTA has been established by a head teacher or principal, he shall submit to the Registrar General an application for registration of the PTA as contained in the First Schedule.

(2) The head teacher or the principal shall submit together with the application a copy of the draft of the constitution of the PTA which shall provide the matters specified in the Second Schedule.

(3) The Registrar General may, upon being satisfied that an application for registration having been duly made, register the PTA and issue a certificate of registration as contained in the Third Schedule.

Right of Registrar General to attend meetings.

7. The Registrar General or his representative shall have the right to attend all meetings of the PTA.

Power of PTA to possess property etc.

8. The PTA shall have the power to possess, use and dispose of any of the PTA's moveable or immovable property which in the PTA's opinion is to facilitate the PTA in the proper exercise of its powers and duties under these Regulations.

Fund and audit.

9. (1) There shall be established and managed by the PTA a fund into which shall be paid all donations or contributions from any member towards the purposes of the PTA.

(2) The PTA shall keep or cause to be kept a proper account and other records in respect of the PTA's operation and shall also cause to be prepared a statement of account for each financial year.

LAWS OF BRUNEI

6 CAP. 210, Rg 5

(3) The account of the PTA shall be audited annually by 2 persons who are not committee members and who shall be nominated and elected by the members of the PTA.

(4) The PTA with the consent of the annual general meeting shall be allowed to obtain the service of an accredited auditor for the purposes of auditing the PTA's account.

(5) The head teacher or the principal shall be allowed to inspect the account of the PTA.

Administration.

10. (1) The head teacher or the principal of the school where the PTA is established shall assist the clerical and stationery needs of the PTA.

(2) All other needs of the PTA other than those mentioned in sub-regulation (1) shall be the responsibility of the PTA.

Power of Registrar General in relation to exercise of functions etc.

11. (1) If the Registrar General is satisfied, either upon a complaint or otherwise that a PTA or the members of the PTA —

(a) have been acting or are proposing to act unreasonably with respect to the exercise of any power conferred or the discharge of any duty imposed by or under these Regulations or by the constitution of the PTA; or

(b) have failed to discharge any duty imposed upon the PTA or members of the PTA by or under these Regulations, the Registrar General may —

(i) give such directions in writing as to the exercise of the power or the discharge of the duty as appear to the Registrar General to be expedient, with which directions it shall be the duty of the PTA or members of the PTA to comply; or

(ii) suspend or dismiss all or any of the office-bearers of the PTA and, notwithstanding the provisions of any regulations or the constitution of the PTA, appoint such person or persons as the Registrar General may think fit to have and to exercise all the functions of the office-bearers of the PTA for such period as the Registrar General may direct.

(2) If at any time, for any PTA in any school there is no office-bearer, the Registrar General may appoint such person or persons as the Registrar General may think fit to exercise the functions of the office-bearer of the PTA for such period as the Registrar General may direct.

No affiliation with bodies outside school.

12. The PTA shall have no affiliation with any political party or trade union or other organisation or PTA registered or incorporated under any written law in force relating to it.
