Rules under section 41 of the Act

ADVOCATES AND SOLICITORS
(REMUNERATION) RULES

Commencement: 1st January 1991

Citation.

1. (1) These Rules may be cited as the Advocates and Solicitors (Remuneration) Rules.

(2) These Rules shall apply to any person to whom a practising certificate is issued under the Legal Profession Act (Chapter 132) (hereafter referred to as the principal Act) for 1991 or thereafter.

[S 30/90]

Interpretation.

2. In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires, “solicitor” means any person to whom the principal Act applies.

Remuneration generally First Schedule to Thirteenth Schedule.

3. The remuneration of a solicitor for business, other than contentious business, shall be —

(a) for sales, purchases and charges for completing any transaction, in accordance with the First Schedule;

(b) for sale and purchase agreements and transfers for housing and commercial estates of 15 units and more, in accordance with the Second Schedule;

(c) for leases and agreements for leases, or agreements reserving rent, in accordance with the Third Schedule;

(d) for satisfaction pertaining to charged properties, in accordance with the Fourth Schedule;

(e) for Debentures by way of a fixed or floating charge, in accordance with the Fifth Schedule;

(j) for the witnessing of miscellaneous documents, in accordance with the Sixth Schedule;

(g) for lodgement, renewal and removal of Caveats, in accordance with the Seventh Schedule;

LAWS OF BRUNEI

[CAP. 132, R 5

[Subsidiary]

(h) for searches at the Land Registry, District Land Offices and Companies Registry, in accordance with the Eighth Schedule;

(i) for the administration of estates, in accordance with the Ninth Schedule;

(j) for partnership agreements, in accordance with the Tenth Schedule;

(k) for the collection of debts, in accordance with the Eleventh Schedule;

(l) for the incorporation of companies, in accordance with the Twelveth Schedule;

(m) for any non-contentious work for which provision is not made by these Rules, in accordance with the Thirteenth Schedule.

Exclusions.

4. (1) The remuneration prescribed by these Rules does not include —

(a) any fees payable on the registration of documents requiring registration, stamp fees, counsel's fees, auctioneer's or valuer's charges, travelling or hotel expenses, fees paid on searches or registration, costs of extracts from any register or record, or other disbursements reasonably and properly paid;

(b) the cost of any extra work, or any business of a contentious nature;

(c) any proceedings in any Court.

(2) Such remuneration shall include allowances for the time of the solicitor and his clerk, and charges for normal copying and stationery and all other similar disbursements.

Speedy business.

5. In respect of any business which is required to be, and is, carried through in an exceptionally short space of time, the solicitor may charge additional remuneration for the special exertion involved, according to the circumstances, and having regard to the Thirteenth Schedule.

Security.

6. A solicitor may accept from his client, and a client may give to his solicitor, security for the fees due to the solicitor for business, to be transacted by him and for interest on such fees.

Interest.

7. A solicitor may charge interest at 14 per cent on his disbursements and fees due to him from the client. If the same are payable by any infant, or out of a fund not presently available, such demand may be made on the parent or guardian, the trustee or the other person liable.

Breach of Rules.

8. (1) Any person, whether or not a solicitor, may draw the attention of the Chief Justice to any alleged breach of these Rules.

(2) The Chief Justice may, if an alleged breach is reported to him, take such steps as he may consider proper in relation thereto.

RULES

1. Where the same solicitor acts for both the Vendor and the Purchaser and the transaction includes the Sale and Purchase Agreement and the Memorandum of Transfer to complete the sale, the solicitor shall charge full scale as the Purchaser's solicitor and one-half as the Vendor's solicitor. Where he represents only the Purchaser, he shall charge the full scale, and where he represents only the Vendor, he shall charge one-half of the scale.

2. Where the same solicitor acts for both the Vendor and Purchaser and the transaction involves only the Sale and Purchase Agreement the advocate shall charge three-quarters of the scale as the Purchaser's advocate and one-quarter as the Vendor's solicitor. Where he represents only the Purchaser, he shall charge three-quarters of the scale, and where he represents only the Vendor, he shall charge one-quarter of the scale. This rule also applies where the transaction involves the Memorandum of Transfer only.

3. Where the same solicitor acts for the Vendor, the Purchaser and the Sub-Purchaser in the same transaction, he shall charge one-quarter of the scale as the Vendor's solicitor (on the sale consideration), three-quarters of the scale as the Purchaser's solicitor (on the purchase consideration) and three-quarters of the scale as the Sub-Purchaser's solicitor (on the sub-purchase consideration).

4. Where the same solicitor acts on behalf of the Purchaser and the Sub-Purchaser but not on behalf of the Vendor, he shall charge three-quarters of the scale as the Purchaser's solicitor (on the purchase consideration) and three-quarters of the scale as the Sub-Purchaser's solicitor (on the sub-purchase consideration).

5. Where the same solicitor acts on behalf of the Vendor and the Purchaser but not on behalf of the Sub-Purchaser in a sale, purchase and sub-purchase, he shall charge one-quarter of the scale as the Vendor's solicitor (on the sale consideration) and one and one-quarter of the scale as the Purchaser's solicitor being full scale (on the purchase consideration) and one-quarter of the scale on the sub-sale consideration.

6. Where the same solicitor acts on behalf of both the Charge and the Chargee or the Chargee only he shall charge full scale.

7. Where the transaction includes an assignment and loan agreement in addition to the Charge in escrow, the solicitor shall charge a further sum equivalent to one-quarter of the scale.

8. Where the same solicitor acts for the Vendor, Purchaser, Chargor and the Chargee, he shall charge one-quarter of the scale as the Vendor's solicitor and full scale as the Purchasers' solicitor (both on the amount of the Charge).

9. Where a solicitor acts for the Chargor only, he shall charge one-quarter of the scale.

10. Where a solicitor is instructed to put up a property for sale by public auction —

(a) the Vendor's solicitor shall charge full scale on the sale price for conducting the sale including drafting and settling conditions of sale if the property is sold; but if the property is not sold, he shall charge one-half of the scale on the reserve price, or if there is no reserve price, one-half of the scale on the highest bid as certified in writing by the auctioneer but if there is no reserve price and no bid, the advocate shall charge according to the Thirteenth Schedule;

(b) the fee of one-half of the scale for investigating title and perusing and completing transfer on a scale by auction is to be chargeable on each lot of property, except that where a property held under the same title is divided into lots for convenience of sale and the same Purchaser buys several such lots and takes on transfer, one-half of the scale is to be chargeable by the Vendor's solicitor upon the aggregate prices of the lots and full scale is to be chargeable by the Purchaser's solicitor upon the aggregate prices of the lots; and

(c) the fee on an attempted sale by auction of lots is to be chargeable on the aggregate of the reserve prices (for if there be no reserve prices, the aggregate of the highest bids). When property offered for sale is not sold by or on behalf of the owner of a third party and terms are afterwards negotiated and arranged by the same solicitor, he shall charge full scale on the reserve price where the property is not sold and also one-half of the scale for negotiating the sale. When property is bought in and afterwards offered for auction by the same solicitor, he shall charge only full scale for the first attempted sale and for each subsequent sale ineffectually attempted he shall charge according to the Thirteenth Schedule. In case of a subsequent effectual sale by auction he shall charge full scale less one-half of the fee previously charged on the first attempted sale.

11. The scale in the First Schedule shall apply to transfer of charge based on the consideration for such transfer.

12. Where a property is sold subject to incumbrances, the amount of the incumbrances shall be deemed a part of the purchase money, except where the Chargee purchases the charged property, and the same solicitor who prepared the charge acts for the Chargee upon such purchase, in which case the fee of the solicitor shall be calculated on the price of the equity of redemption.

13. In addition to the other fees payable to a solicitor under these Rules, where a solicitor negotiates any transaction he shall be entitled to charge a negotiating fee. The scale for negotiating shall be in accordance with the scale prescribed by the First Schedule and shall apply to cases where the solicitor for a Vendor or Purchaser arranges the sale or purchase and the price and terms and conditions thereof and no commission is paid by the client to an auctioneer or estate or other agent. A Chargor's solicitor shall also be entitled to a negotiating fee where he arranges and obtains a loan for the Chargor. The negotiating fee payable pursuant to this rule shall be full scale based on the amount of the consideration or loan.

14. When completion of a transfer of property takes place simultaneously with a charge of the same property, the Chargee's scale fee under the First Schedule shall include charges for attending to the stamping and registration of the transfer or other documents by the solicitor on behalf of the Chargee and for attendance at the office of another solicitor for completion, except the actual transport charges incurred for such attendance.

15. Where additional facilities are granted on the security of an existing charge, which is being stamped additionally to cover such facilities, the solicitor in charge of such stamping and other attendant work shall be entitled to charge on the above scale at the appropriate rate as if the additional facilities formed part of the original facilities.

SECOND SCHEDULEHOUSING AND COMMERCIAL ESTATES OF 15 UNITS AND MORE

This Schedule applies where a solicitor acts for the Vendors or Developers of housing or commercial estates of 15 units and more. It does not apply to solicitors of the Purchasers of the houses therein whose fees shall be governed by the First Schedule.
