

LABOUR ACT
(CHAPTER 93)

LABOUR (LIMITATION OF DUTIES AND POWERS) RULES

S 160/71

REVISED EDITION 2002

(15th April 2002)

SUBSIDIARY LEGISLATION

LABOUR (LIMITATION OF DUTIES AND POWERS) RULES

ARRANGEMENT OF RULES

Rule

1. Citation.
 2. Limitation of Duties and Powers.
-

SUBSIDIARY LEGISLATION

Rules under section 3(1) prescribing limitations upon the exercise of powers by certain officersLABOUR (LIMITATION OF DUTIES AND POWERS) RULES*Citation.

1. These Rules may be cited as the Labour (Limitation of Duties and Powers) Rules.

Limitation of Duties and Powers.

2. The duties and powers of any officer appointed under section 3(1) of the Act other than the Commissioner of Labour or any Deputy Commissioner of Labour or Assistant Commissioner of Labour shall be limited as follows, that is to say such officer may perform only the duties imposed and exercise only the powers conferred on the Commissioner by the following sections of the Act —

Section	Subject
4(1)	Entry to places of employment and questioning of employers and workmen.
6	Inspection of documents, substances etc.
7 and 129	Inquiries, institution of proceedings and issue of summonses.
22	Attestation of contracts.
26	Transfer of contracts.
77 and 81	Inspection of registers of young persons employed in industrial undertakings and ships.
108(5)	Orders prohibiting deductions from wages in lieu of notice.
113(2)(f)	Approval of deductions from wages for damage or loss of goods entrusted to a worker.

